

country, in Africa, Hayti, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines, and Canada. Among the many who have reached eminence are Bishop B. F. Lee, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and who was president of the university for eight years; Rev. Geo. W. Prioleau and W. T. Anderson, two of the colored chaplains in the United States Army; Dr. John Hurst, financial secretary of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and former secretary of the Haytian Legation in Washington; Miss Hallie Q. Brown, widely known in this country and England as a temperance lecturer; W. T. Vernon, register of the United States treasury, and a host of others, graduates and undergraduates, men and women of recognized character, ability, and influence, holding high rank in church, in education, in business, and in the service of the government.

Wilberforce University stands for the united education of head, heart, and hand, and is located to do this work to a decided advantage. It is contiguous to a territory of three states, each having a large Negro

ARNETT HALL, WILBERFORCE UNIVERSITY

Girl's new dormitory, accommodating one hundred. Occupied September, 1903. Contains also, laundry, kitchen, and dining room, with parlors and large reception room.

SHOE SHOP, WILBERFORCE UNIVERSITY

The industrial department, of which the shoe shop is a part, was established at Wilberforce, by an act of the legislature in 1887. A beginning in shoemaking was made in 1900.

population. It draws from these and the entire belt of southern states, together with the immediate large Negro belt in Ohio. It presents to its patrons an exceptional race environment, where high ideals and practices obtain, where race social life is on a high plane, where evil surroundings are few, where country air and influences do their healthful work, where race friction is quite unknown, where is found on every hand for youth the greatest possible inspiration to right living, right thinking, industry, sobriety, and success in life.

Illustrates What the Race Can Do for Itself

It has illustrated to the world what the race can do for itself. For over fifty years the work has continued, and President Scarborough is now reaching out in a broad endeavor to expand its usefulness.

With its continuous growth, its needs have kept pace, so to-day the school faces pressing necessities. It needs $100,000 added to its small endowment. It cannot accommodate the numbers applying for admission, and more room must be provided.